Support Line Volunteer

Role Description
The Aware Support Line provides telephone support and information for individuals experiencing depression, bipolar and mood related conditions and for family and friends supporting a loved one. This is a national Freephone service and operates 10am-10pm seven days a week. Volunteers will ensure that all calls to the Aware Support Line are conducted within the framework of the Support Line approach. Each volunteer is trained to respond to all calls with empathy, by allowing clarification, consideration of options and encouraging positive action while adhering to Aware’s ethos, policies and procedures. The Support Line volunteer reports to the Support Line and Support Mail Manager.

Person Description - Qualities and Skills
An Aware volunteer will be empathetic and possess good communication skills, have an ability to take direction and possess enthusiasm and passion for the area of mental health and/or for the work of Aware. The Aware volunteer must be respectful of others and understand the importance of being a supportive and flexible team player. They must be willing to make a long term commitment to volunteering with Aware and to participate in mandatory ongoing training.
